

Debbie Green Chartered MCIPD, CPCP (Ad. Dip), MAC

Senior Consultant

Debbie is a professionally qualified Coach & Development Consultant, who provides a uniquely flexible, professional and personalised coaching and learning experience, in an encouraging, supportive and safe environment, which allows individuals to flourish. Debbie is a truly passionate individual who is totally committed to empowering, inspiring and supporting individuals along their coaching and learning journey.

From a 1-1 coaching session, to a team development workshop with Debbie, allows individuals to explore new ideas and ways of working, be able to ask questions and get answers in a safe and trusting environment. Her practical and solution-focused approach allows businesses to improve performance, develop their teams and increase contribution and motivation.

Debbie brings with her a wide range of experience and skills, having worked within the Human Resources and Learning & Development arena for over 25 years – including manufacturing, retail, telecoms, broadcasting, NHS, private health care, motoring and education. She is able to flex her style to an individual's or audiences needs and, coupled with her first-hand knowledge of some of the challenges that businesses face in this ever-changing environment called work, she has the ability to ensure that sessions are delivered in a relaxed and informative way which allows individuals and teams to learn at a pace that suits them, whilst still focusing on achieving the end goal. Debbie truly believes that everyone has the ability to achieve their hopes and dreams and to shine!

Debbie develops and delivers great training, whether it be on a 1-1 basis or small or large groups. She helps individuals develop in widening their business and personal skills to achieving great results.

Debbie is a member of the Association for Coaching, Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development.

Recommendations for Debbie

"Debbie is an absolutely superb coach! She has the ability to break everything down into an incredibly easy to understand and very digestible format. Her incredible energy and positivity is infectious!"

Top qualities: Personable, Expert, Creative

Graham Laker – HH Design

"Debbie is a great facilitator and coach, I have always found Debbie to be supportive as well as challenging and thoroughly enjoy my interactions with her due to her natural optimism and enthusiasm. I would recommend Debbie as a coach, as a facilitator of leadership & management development and as a colleague."

Caroline Joy - Telewest

“Working with Debbie Green was an extremely educational, worthwhile and rewarding experience. Her passion for treating people fairly and getting the best out of everyone she came into contact with was second to none and I felt very lucky to have been involved with her. Debbie supported me in my role with accurate and empowering information and although some of the experiences were tough I really enjoyed working with her.”

Jo Whittaker – Telewest/NTL